

Ticket insurance

Look forward to your event without worries!

We all know it. Tickets to theatre, concerts, festivals, sport and other events are usually purchased long in advance. However, in the period between the purchase and the date of the event, a number of unexpected troubles, that can prevent you from participating, may happen.

We know how to help you

With our insurance, you can prevent financial losses. We will refund your ticket if you are unable to attend the event particularly if:

- you or your close relative become ill or get injured
- you become ill with COVID-19 (20% deductible)
- you are ordered a personal preventive quarantine, e.g. due to COVID-19 (20% deductible)
- you experience health complications in connection with pregnancy
- there is a damage to your residence just before the event takes place
- for serious reasons, your friends with whom you bought tickets, cancel their participation and thus leave you in the position to attend the event by yourself.
